The Waialea Mill Company are going to grind the Olaa cane, and have commenced this week to make sugar out of it. It is good so far, resembling Waialea canes in saccharine and purity. It will be brought in on the Olaa railroad and cars, run into the mill company's scows and taken to the mill for grinding. They expect to take off 200 acres of cane. On account of so many strikes, both here and in America, it will take longer to get the mill ready.—Hilo Tribune.

The sailing dates of the transports for the remainder of the year, as furnished to Major W. W. Robinson, depot quartermaster at Honolulu, is as follows: Kilpatrick, August 1; Meade, August 16; Sheridan, September 1; Logan, September 16; Sherman, October 1; Hancock, October 16; Thomas, November 1; Meade, November 16; Sheridan, December 1; Logan, December 16.

UP-TO-DATE JAPAN.

Economic developments in Japan during the past few years have been very striking indeed. From a native source the Kobe Chronicle reproduces certain figures which show what an enormous expansion there has been in the capital invested in joint stock companies since the war. This has been specially noticeable in the banking and money lending groups, and among manufacturing companies engaged in cotton spinning, coal and the tobacco industries. Cotton spinning capital was 39,313,000 yen in 1899, the last year for which figures are available, and in 1895 only 18,658,000. Cotton weaving capital increased from 1,563,000 yen to 3,976,000. In coal mining 14,241,000 yen was employed against 1,013,000 in 1895. In tobacco, 11,429,000 yen, against practically nothing in 1895. Other big increases were 4,757,000 yen to 7,909,000 yen in the electrical lighting industry, 2,019,000 yen in machinery manufacturing, and 4,214,000 yen in ship building, the two last practically new industries. Sake brewing accounted for 6,133,000 yen, against 1,322,300.

Far and away the greatest increase is, however, in banking and money lending, now responsible for 275,432,000 yen, against 79,370,000 yen in 1895, and, if the figures are reliable, it is not surprising that the necessary competition for business has resulted in disaster. Taking the various groups of joint stock companies, we have the following comparisons: Agricultural companies, accounted for 2,287,685 yen in 1899, an increase of 765,000 yen over the 1895 figures, commercial and financial accounted for 335,503,000 yen, against 99,756,000 yen in 1895, an increase of 235,747,000 yen; manufacturing for 147,783,000 yen, an increase of 99,055,000 yen; and transport, sea and land, for 198,147,000 yen, an increase of 108,186,000 yen. It is estimated that the increase in the capital of joint stock companies in 1899, as compared with 1895, when the figures were roughly 249,998,000 yen, was 432,722,000 yen. Moreover, fully 15,234,000 yen represents the increase in debentures raised. In round numbers, 450,000,000 yen represents the increase in the capital of joint stock companies in Japan since the war, or nearly 175 per cent.

To Buy Plumbing Material

WITHOUT A PLUMBER to put up the articles in first-class style is of very small advantage to the average householder. The people of Honolulu have been "clnched" so often by plumbers that they are afraid to set one onto a job by day's work.

BAILEY'S PLUMBING SHOP will put your plumbing in condition and connect with the sewer for a very low figure. And guarantee the job will PASS INSPECTION by the GOVERNMENT officials. And also guarantee that day's work by honest men is cheaper than contract. Contracts are taken, however, and promptly filled by
